

Learning Taekwondo with the ‘Young Taekwondo E-Volunteers’

The ‘Young Taekwondo E-Volunteers’ is a Taekwondo teaching program organized by the Taekwondo Promotion Foundation of the Republic of Korea. The members of the Young Taekwondo E-Volunteers aim to share one of the greatest spiritual heritages of Korea, "the Taekwondo spirit" with the world. They are skilled trainers who are ready to teach Taekwondo with passion. We would like to invite everyone who is interested in learning Taekwondo.

The period of the program is:

- Jan 10, 2022, ~ Jan 16, 2022, and Feb 14, 2022, ~ Feb 20, 2022
(Subject to change according to the state of TPF)

The aims of the Young Taekwondo E-Volunteers are to:

- teach Taekwondo live via Zoom, providing information and practices
- communicate with participants online to adjust teaching objectives based on Taekwondo level and demand of the participants

The participants of the Young Taekwondo E-Volunteers program should:

- affiliated with a group(s) or organization(s)
- have video conference equipment with an internet connection to participate in online lessons.
- Have the main coordinator whom the young Taekwondo e-volunteers could contact

We will select active participants at the end of the program, and send them some souvenirs such as Taekwondo Doboks.

The group(s) and organization(s) that wish to participate may fill out the attached application form and submit it to tv@tpf.or.kr by December 19, 2021, 11:59 pm (UTC)

For more information, please contact us at tv@tpf.or.kr, ☎(82)63-320-0342